

Nuthara Yuthmini

SE Undergraduate

AGE	22
GENDER	FEMALE
STATUS	SINGLE
EDUCATION	UNDERGRADUATE
LOCATION	GAMPAHA

Empathetic Independent Organised

Punctual Practical

"Learning to write programs stretches my mind, and helps me to think better, creates a way of thinking about things that I think is helpful in all domains."

Bio

2nd year undergraduate at the National School of Business Management (NSBM) following a degree in software engineering. She is the second child in her family.

Her typical day is like attends the lectures at the university and goes out with friends.spends the morning working on assignments and coding on her holidays.continues working on coding projects and practicing skills.

Goals

- Become an expert in programming languages
- complete the degree and secure a job as a software developer.

Frustrations

- Time limitation
- Limited resources
- The rapid advancement of technology.

Behavior

Designing features

User testing

Meetings

Skills

- Good research skills
- Proficient in multiple programming language
- Excellent problem solver.

Needs

- Learning platform that provides interactive and engaging online classes, and access to a variety of coding resources.

Influences

- Blogs
- UI Trends
- Movies
- Credibility

Frequently used apps

